

APPETITES

Created and Maintained by Vinol.

THAT THE FOOD IS DIGESTED IS ALSO EQUALLY NECESSARY.

We Recommend Vinol as an Appetite Creator.

WE GUARANTEE THAT VINOL WILL AID DIGESTION.

Vinol is the greatest aid to digestion that we have ever known.

It is because Vinol acts so beneficially upon the stomach that it accomplishes so much good.

Vinol contains the active curative principles that are found in cod-liver oil, without any oil or grease.

These medicinal elements act so favorably upon the stomach, that this organ obtains for itself the elements necessary for creating new flesh, muscle tissue and for making rich red blood.

When the stomach acts easily and naturally, a desire is created for good simple food and a good appetite is the sure result.

With cod-liver oil as formerly taken the medicinal elements which it contained were too often unable to counteract the harm that was done by the obnoxious grease that enveloped them.

Now that in Vinol we have those same elements separated from the vile-tasting fat, we have a tonic and re-builder that is simply marvelous in its action.

The following is a letter that will explain itself:

"This is to certify that I have used six bottles of Vinol, and have found it of great value as an appetizer and tonic in general debility. I have received so much benefit from its use that I gladly furnish this testimonial in order that others may be induced to give it a trial and prove to themselves its recuperative powers."—Miss ELIZ-ABETH FEELEY, Waterbury, Conn.

We want every one in this place to know more about our Vinol, how it cures and what it cures. Certainly the greatest tonic and re-builder we have ever sold.

We, therefore, cordially invite any one interested to call upon us; and we want all to bear in mind that we will gladly refund to any one who is not satisfied with the action of Vinol every cent they pay for it.

President Castro
And His People

LESS than half a dozen years ago there appeared on the troubled surface of things in Venezuela a thin, dark bearded young man with bright, restless black eyes and a high forehead. He had come from a little Venezuelan village somewhere on the Colombian frontier, a little village nestling at the foot of the snow capped Andes. He was poor, obscure and without influence.

But the young man with the restless eyes and the high forehead was a soldier of the Napoleonic order. He began to mix in the various revolts which were being fomented against the government. He found plenty of this work to do. He displayed a remarkable talent for getting men together and making them win battles. Of course these battles were only skirmishes, but has met with opposition in carrying out this plan.

He is surrounded by enemies. When he first appeared as dictator, they called him "El Mono de los Andes." This was impolite. The phrase means "the Monkey of the Andes." Later he has been called "the Clown of Mira Flores," the latter being the name of the new government palace at Caracas.

In his capital Castro works as silently as a servant in rubber shoes. He moves in the darkness, stealthily, as one whose intent may be challenged.
He is a bat among the people. Sooner or later he must follow one or another of his predecessors—Guzman Blanco, who died wealthy in Paris; Crespo, who was shot in battle; Andrade, who, having escaped through the back door of the palace as Castro and his soldiers

PRESIDENT CASTRO OF VENEZUELA.

the manner in which they were managed showed clearly that the young man was born to the game.

In a short time he had a following.
By courtesy it was called an army.
There were two or three of these armies then in the field. General Hernandez was at the head of one. At that time Andrade was president of Venezuela. Hernandez and the other revolutionists fought independently of each other. Each was for himself. Finally Hernandez was caught away from his army. He was taken prisoner by Andrade. Then Andrade gave his attention to the others.

The dark young man quietly gathered up the forces which the unfortunate Hernandez had commanded. One day he heard that Andrade, with a big army, was looking for him. He had been declared an outlaw. A price had been put on his head. This was something of a distinction for an obscure young soldier to have achieved, but it did not embarrass him in the least.

Detailing a small part of his force, he sent it out to meet Andrade's big army. It was sheer folly, of course, but while Andrade was engaged in demolishing this little band the young man had slipped around the corner and by a series of forced marches reached Caracas, which was defended only by a handful of troops. The young man coolly marched in, took possession of the capital and proclaimed himself dictator. He has been dictator ever since. His name is Cipriano Castro.

Such was the rise to fame of the man who has involved Venezuela in a most variegated lot of trouble with European nations. From obscurity and poverty he has risen with meteoric rapidity to worldwide fame and to the possession of great wealth. For more than three years he has ruled his turbulent republic with autocratic sway, almost constantly busy in crushing revolts and all the time more or less at odds with powerful nations across the sea. And today he is but forty-seven years of age.

Castro is not, as are so many South and Central American chief executives, of almost wholly unmixed Spanish blood. In fact, there is very little, if any, Spanish blood in his veins. He is said to be almost a full blood Indian, and it is alleged that he is proud of his origin. In many ways he is an interesting and remarkable man, the most remarkable in Venezuela.

He has much energy, a boundless ambition and an unbounded belief in his country's future. His grand scheme is to merge Venezuela, Colombia and Ecuador in one big federation, with himself as its dictator. Naturally he crashed in at the front, fled to Barbados on Venezuela's only gunboat and then, with infinite courtesy, sent the boat back to Castro with a note saying, "I return you the navy; you may need it yourself."

Castro's aspirations lean rather to the Blanco method of exit and to a golden exile. Traitors in his own house tell of frequent shipments of gold sent abroad by the thrifty president.

In the heart of the capital city there is a palace which has an extension built entirely of steel. The house is called Mira Flores and was the residence of Crespo when that fighting general was president. The steel extension was not built with the forethought of fire; it is a earthquake proof.

That the steel house is bullet proof is an added point of merit in the dictator's eyes. That which Castro most fears is not earthquake, not nature, but humankind. Richard Harding Davis tells an anecdote of Castro in connection with this steel house.

"The president is a good fellow," says Davis, "and the type of a fighter General Funston represents in this country. He is a great admirer of President Roosevelt, whose rough riders he is never tired of hearing about, imagining them like his own troops which rode across the state. He wanted me to tell President Roosevelt that if the United States ever went to war he should come to Washington and offer his sword in his service. An amusing thing happened in his household the other day. Some time ago he built himself a fine 'palace' and put in it an all steel room, decorated by French artists and costing $50,000, to take refuge in during earthquakes. Three weeks ago there was an earthquake, but the president and his entire household forgot the $50,000 steel room, running instead into the street."

In Venezuela Castro has under his sway about 2,500,000 people, scattered over an area of 593,943 square miles.
The population is of the same character as in Colombia and Ecuador—a mixture of Indians, Spanish, half breeds and negroes, though the mixture of Indian blood in the Spanish is not so great as it is in Colombia.
In the latter country the Indian blood is very prominent, and its possessors, so far from seeking to conceal the fact, are rather proud of it.

The people of these countries are fighters in their irregular way, but the most sturdy and the best soldiers in Venezuela are the cow punchers of the llanos, great plains like the plains of our west, and in Colombia the little Indians from Cauca are as brave and as fond of tumult and battle as they are undisciplined and hard to control.

CASTRO BROUGHT OVER

Proposal Emanating From the Washington Government Accepted
By Venezuela's President.

Who Signifies His Willingness to Submit to the Hague Tribunal.

Caracas, Dec. 26.—President Castro has telegraphed from La Victoria his acceptance of the proposal to submit all pending differences to the arbitration of The Hague tribunal, subject to certain conditions which include cessation of the blockade and the return to Venezuela of the fleet seized by the allied powers. President Castro's acceptance has been transmitted to the Washington government, from which the proposal emanated.

Washington, Dec. 26.—The report coming from Caracas that the proposition had been made to President Castro that all pending differences between Venezuela and the European governments having claims against her be submitted to arbitration of The Hague tribunal arouses interest here.
If, as stated, the suggestion has come from Washington that the matter should be arbitrated at The Hague, that conclusion probably was reached at the long conference the president had with Secretary Hay Wednesday afternoon, when the two officials were together for some time considering the proposals from the allies that the president take up the question of the arbitration. The dispatch to President Castro through Minister Bowen suggesting arbitration at The Hague must have followed that conference. The officials here have refused absolutely to say anything on the subject since the receipt of the proposals from the allies or even to give out anything bearing on the terms of that proposal.
The impression here is that an early determination of the matter will be reached.

No matter by whom the matter is arbitrated, either by the president or The Hague tribunal, the feeling here is strong that the United States government, if the occasion arises, will insist that the existing blockade be called off while the arbitration is in progress. The presence of the blockading fleet along the Venezuelan coast is sure to be a menace to peaceful conditions and difficulties of various kinds may arise at any time through the arbitrary action of some of the commanders of the ships of the allied fleet or to the intrepidity of some skipper who may attempt to run the blockade. But the greatest objection to a continuance of the blockade pending arbitration will be the loss to American shipping interests, which this government does not believe should be tolerated.

go here. The warships of the allied powers are using searchlights to watch the coast of Venezuela. Forty vessels are now detained at La Guayra.

RAISING A POINT

France Wants to Know Why Hague Tribunal Is Ignored.

Paris, Dec. 26.—Baron d'Estournelles de Constant has written to Foreign Minister Delcasse notifying him that the writer will interpellate the government on the reassembling of the chamber concerning the disregard of Article 27 of The Hague convention shown by the allied powers in coercing Venezuela.

In his letter Baron d'Estournelles strongly supports the contention of the United States that the Venezuelan trouble should be referred to The Hague court. After pointing out that the present is just the contingency contemplated by Article 27, the writer says:

"The conflict rests between Venezuela and several of the signatories to The Hague convention and the formal obligation that France and the twenty-five others powers signed is not only being ignored, but we observe a systematic interdiction of The Hague court of arbitration by the European governments. An explanation has become necessary. It cannot be objected by the allied powers that Venezuela took no part in the conference; and as she is asking for arbitration, an occasion exists for reminding the powers of the obligations they signed and ratified. Nor can the reply be made that states unlike individuals are free not to observe their engagements and that moral obligations exist only for individuals or for the weak, as this point of view is precisely contrary to the principle that The Hague conference sought to secure."

DR. LORENZ TALKS

Viennese Surgeon Has Something to Say About Fees.

New York, Dec. 26.—Dr. Adolf Lorenz, who returned to this city from Boston yesterday, while discussing his visit to this country, said in an interview last night:

"There is one thing I want to say, and that is in regard to finance. I see it reported that I have made in this country $160,000. Now as a matter of

DR. ADOLPH LORENZ.

fact I got one fee of $30,000 in Chicago, and in the four months I have been here I have earned just $30,000.
My practice at home in four months is worth that.

"True, I have seen a number of private patients in each of the cities I visited, but as you Americans say, in no instance have they more than 'paid the freight.' As a matter of fact it has been the physicians of the various cities who have profited by my visits.
They are my colleagues, and I am glad they did, but, you see, I remained only two, three, four or perhaps five days.
During that time I was working in the hospitals, in the clinics. The private patients began to come in and they were operated upon by the local surgeons who had witnessed my clinics.
But I am glad I came. The trip has been the crowning success of my life.
My trip here has been successful ethically but not materially."

Dr. Lorenz spoke gratefully of the hospitality he had received at the hands of the Americans.

INVESTIGATION

Of the Hot Springs Disaster Is Now Going On.

Hot Springs, Ark., Dec. 26.—An inquest was held over the remains of William Helwig, the first person to die as a result of the injuries received in the Turf Exchange explosion, and it has developed that the authorities are going to make a thorough investigation of the carelessness which it is alleged caused the disaster. The final verdict of the inquest will be possessed until witnesses can arrive from Little Rock. Ben Murray, driver of the oil wagon, is still held in custody.

R. C. Chambers, who was badly mangled in the wreck, is a little better, but physicians in attendance do not offer encouragement. Dan Kinney and Joe Pace, local hotel managers, are both still in a critical condition and are not expected to survive. Both lost both legs in the disaster.

Yates Coming Back.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 26.—Gov. Yates, who is now in Florida for his health, did not spend Christmas in Cuba as expected. He was to have sailed Wednesday, but the boat on which he was to have taken the trip did not start. A message received at the executive office yesterday states that the governor and Mrs. Yates will return to Springfield next Tuesday, as the executive is greatly improved in health and is now able to assume charge of state affairs.

Four Trainmen Killed.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 26.—In a head-on collision last night between a locomotive and a freight train on the Grand Trunk railroad at Benton, Engineer James Kerwin and Fireman Theo.
Schuberts, were killed and Engineer Brown and Fireman Burkhardt were fatally injured. The "light" locomotive was ent out from Battle Creek to meet and help pull the freight.

Turmoil in a Kansas Town.

BRUTAL WORK OF MOB

Negro Held On Charge of Killing a Policeman Lynched By a Gang of Ruffians.

As Sweet Christmas Chimes Pealed Out the Bloody Deed Was Done.

Pittsburg, Kan., Dec. 26.—Montgomery Godley (colored) was taken from the Pittsburg jail Christmas day by a crowd of ruffians, who hanged him, cut his throat, and again hanged him.
The outlaws who lynched Godley said they believed the negro had deliberately murdered Policeman Milton Hinkle early in the morning at a Christmas dance.

The victim of the mob was given a short hearing in the jailyard before he was executed. He did not confess to the murder, but the lynchers carried him three blocks from the jail without the slightest interference from the jailers or police. A rope was secured and Godley was hanged to a telephone pole in spite of his pleas for mercy and protestations of innocence.

The negro struggled and the rope broke. As Godley struck the ground a man seized him by the throat. The negro again protested his innocence and begged for a trial. The murder-er's only answer was to draw a clasp-knife across Godley's throat, severing the jugular vein. Again the mob seized the expiring victim, and this time hanged a corpse.

The death of the policeman occurred at daylight, and by the time the bells in the church steeples were pealing forth their Christmas chimes, the bloody corpse of the negro charged with, but not proved guilty of, shooting the policeman gazed the eyes of the rabble in the streets of Pittsburg.

The murder of Policeman Hinkle, as far as known to the police, was due to his attempt to subdue a number of negroes at a Christmas dance. The ball had gone on all night and many of the men were drunk when morning came. Most of the dancers were miners. Montgomery and Joseph Godley were two of the more unruly revelers.
Officer Hinkle requested them to be quiet. The Godley brothers answered him in an insolent manner and he tried to arrest them. They resisted and Officer Hinkle blew his whistle for help. Then he began to use his club in order to protect himself. He was holding his own against three men when a negro, said to have been Mont Godley, grabbed the officer's revolver from the holster and shot Hinkle behind the right ear. Hinkle died soon afterward. Other officers pursued the negroes. The Godley brothers were the only two captured, and they were put in jail.

The news of the murder spread and soon a crowd gathered about the jail.
Cries of "hang him," "burn him," "get a rope," were heard on every side. An attempt was first made to rob Marshal Higgins of his keys to the jail, but he did not have them. The doors were then kicked and beaten in.

DETECTIVE SHOT

Bloody Christmas Tragedy Enacted at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., Dec. 26.—Chief of Detectives Jack Donohue was shot and killed on the street by Frank Dougherty, a race-track follower, here Christmas day at 4 o'clock. Dougherty, it is claimed, had struck a woman with an ax and as Donohue came up and attempted to arrest him, Dougherty shot the detective over the eye, killing him instantly. He then started to run up the street, but only got a short distance when a boy sixteen years of age, who was in a buggy, got out a shotgun and shot Dougherty in the face and breast. Dougherty then fired a shot into his own head. The doctors say he cannot live. He was taken to the police station and crowds soon began forming and talk of lynching was freely indulged in, but on the assurance that Dougherty could not survive his wounds the crowds dispersed.

Cable Nearly There.

On Board Cable Ship Silvertown via San Francisco, Dec. 26.—The eventful trip of the cable ship Silvertown will be completed today and the first link in the trans-Pacific cable will be laid.
In making the Honolulu connection the cable will be buoyed thirty-five miles from the shore and laid out with buoys and spliced.

A Christmas Tragedy.

Madison, Ind., Dec. 26.—William Dormidy, aged thirty-two, of Indianapolis, was shot and killed on the street last night by Frank Heilmann, a young man said to have been intoxicated, and who gave himself up to Sheriff Crozier. It is supposed Heilmann mistook Dormidy for another man.

Cigar Stub Did It.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 26.—Yesterday the sheep barn of the Union Stock Yards company at South Omaha burned, together with 500 sheep, entailing a loss of $50,000. The fire is supposed to have started from a cigar stub dropped in the barn by one of the workmen.

ASSAILED SAILORS

Murderous Blacks Break Out In New Hebrides.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 26.—The steamer Moana from Australia yesterday brought news of an attack on the recruiting schooner Lilly by the natives of Mallicolo, in the New Hebrides.
They murdered Captain Henry Amos Atkinson, a Britisher, and wounded two of the Lilly's crew. The schooner was engaged in taking home natives who had been employed in New Caledonia by French planters. One of those consigned to Mallicolo died when near there and Captain Atkinson decided to bury the body ashore instead of at sea. When Captain Atkinson landed he was rushed upon and his rifle taken by the blacks. He was then shot and killed with his own rifle.
Some of the native crew tried to save the dead captain's body, but the natives who were just landed aided those ashore and the crew fled, two of them being wounded as they swam back to the schooner. The attack was the result of superstition attached to the burying of the dead body, the natives believing it necessary to kill the whites to prevent further deaths from occurring among them. The schooner Pearl was attacked on this island a few days later. She called at Espie-bay, another part of the island, to

WITHOUT PROVOCATION

Pennsylvania Farmer Shot Down By Stranger In Cold Blood.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 26.—Christian C. Rauck, aged twenty-five, a farmer residing with his father, Benjamin Rauck, near Paradise, this county, was murdered in a cold-blooded manner.
Young Rauck went out to attend to the incubator in his henhouse. As he was returning to the house he noticed that the cellar door of the house was open.
He started to close it, and as he stooped to do so he saw a man in the cellar.
Without a word the stranger shot him in the abdomen with a revolver and then fled. Rauck fell mortally wounded, but recovering himself, staggered into the house where his aged mother lay dying from apoplexy. Two hours later he died. The murderer left no clue as to his identity. Snow had obliterated his footprints by the time pursuit began.

Three of a Kind.

Sioux City, Ia., Dec. 26.—At Algonia, Ia., yesterday Harry Adams killed his wife with a shotgun and then blew out his own brains. The couple had been quarreling for six months.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 26.—William P. Hollenback yesterday while in a fit of rage because of domestic troubles, shot his wife three times as she lay in bed, drove his sixteen-year-old stepdaughter into the street at the point of a revolver and then shot and killed himself. The wife is dangerously wounded.

Eugene, Ore., Dec. 26.—George Carter shot and killed his wife and then killed himself yesterday. Jealousy was the cause.

Earthquakes Keep Up.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—According to the latest advices from Andijan, Russian central Asia, the shocks of earthquake are continuing there. Four or five seismic disturbances have occurred daily, and a particularly violent series of shocks during the night of Dec. 22 and the following morning set all the rolling stock on the railway in motion, resulting in a panic among the railroad men. Traffic is still suspended on the railroad and the station is closed. The military authorities are taking over the control of the line for some distance from Andijan. The damage resulting from the recent earthquake amounts to several million dollars.

DANGER

We seldom fear a danger that we cannot see. The danger of being run-down by a horse is a very real
one to everybody,

NONE SUCH

Mince pie "like mother used to make" can be made only in one way—that is of NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT. In the preparation of this article of food the secret has been discovered of making the cooked product taste as it did at home. In the first place mother's way was clean; so is ours—that above everything else. In mother's pies only the best materials were combined. She was right. We follow her example, but lessen the cost by buying by the car load what she bought by the pound. A ten-cent package makes two pies—"the kind mother used to make"—none other. It can be cooked for plum pudding or fruit cake, too, and is delicious served that way. Over 12,000,000 packages sold last year.

NONE SUCH stands alone—nothing equal to it in either condensed or wet mince meat not branded NONE SUCH. Put up in air-tight cartons containing 2½ pounds of mince meat when ready for the oven. All grocers, Morrill-Soule Co., Syracuse, N. Y.

Valuable premium list of "1847 Rogers Bros." silverware enclosed.

THE MILKY WAY.

A System Which Gives Us a Vague Idea of the Eternity of Space.

The Milky Way, the grandest feature of the "firmament which lends above us," the hazy path which so majestically bands the whole fabric of the skies together, is now known to be composed of a grand aggregation of at least 18,000,000 suns, each as large as or larger than that which makes vegetable and animal life an earthly possibility. One is apt when allowing the mind to revert to the contemplation of these misty and indistinct astronomical subjects to measure their magnitude or attempt to measure it by making terrestrial comparisons.

It is obvious, however, upon more mature reflection that such comparisons are worse than "odorous." The bulk of our sun exceeds that of the earth 1,200,000 times, being 600 times greater than that of the bulk of his whole train of planets taken collectively. This being the case, what basis can we use for calculating the magnitude of 18,000,000 suns, each, as I have said before, probably larger than that which gives us heat and light?

The infinite number of suns which taken together make up the Milky Way are not set at a uniform distance from our earth or even from our sun. In fact, they appear to work altogether independently of either this mundane sphere or our "glorious orb of day." The majority of them are plotted at a distance too remote to be even imperfectly measured or understood. Some of them are so near (3) that light, which travels at the rate of 185,000 miles per second, would cross the distance between us and them in the period of about an even ten years. Others, however, are so remote that it would take a full thousand years for their light to reach us.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Session Last Night Shorter than Usual.

The city council met in regular session last night even though it was Christmas night and went through the regular routine of business. Mayor Shields was in the chair. Councilmen Miller, Hoskin and Stewart were absent. City Attorney Honan was also absent.

Clerk Jennings read the minutes which were found correct.

There were no reports from standing or special committees.

The committee to which was referred the ordinance for a telephone franchise was not ready to report.

The written report of the city commissioners on the grading and graveling of Indianapolis avenue was read. They reported that they had met as per notice and examined the work and found it done according to contract. They found that all of the abutting property is benefited by the improvement. Assessments will be made at a later meeting which will be held January 22 as designated in a resolution that followed the report of commissioners.

There was no report of special committees and no miscellaneous business was introduced.

BRAIN WORK.

Its Effect Upon the Body and the Kind of Food It Demands.

The changes of tissue in the brain that take place during study and thought are very important and very rapid. It has been estimated that three hours of brain work cause as great an exhaustion of the forces of the body as an entire day of manual labor.

This waste must be replaced by abundant food, but its selection requires careful consideration and often self denial, for many things which the physical worker can eat with perfect impunity are slow poison to the brain worker, who exercises the brain at the expense of the body and rarely gives the latter sufficient exercise to counteract the mental strain and keep it in condition to resist disease. Bear in mind that, while the waste of the body is much more rapid, the deprivation of physical exercise encourages torpidity of the voluntary functions and renders them sluggish in eliminating these wastes; therefore it is of the utmost importance that the tasks imposed upon them should be light.

Brain workers require the most concentrated and easily digested foods. They should eat fresh beef and mutton, fish, eggs—cooked in many forms, but never hard boiled or fried—oysters and crisp salads, lettuce, chicken, tomatoes, watercress, etc., with mayonnaise or French dressing. They should begin the day with fruit and make it form the principal part of luncheon and be very sparing in their use of cereals, eschewing entirely white bread and oatmeal. Their ideal luncheon, which must be light if they continue to work in the afternoon, is a glass of milk or cup of hot chocolate or, better still, a glass of fresh buttermilk, with two or three Graham wafers or a bit of toast and some fruit, an apple, figs or an orange.

WEATHER PROPHETS.

Blow out a candle, and if the wick continues long to smolder look for bad weather. If it goes out quickly, the weather will be fair.

The twelve days after Christmas indicate the weather for the following year. Each day in order shows the weather for one month.

When it begins to snow, notice the size of the flakes. If they are very fine, the storm will be a long one; if large, the storm will soon be over.

If the chickens come out while it rains, it is a sign that the storm is to be a long one. If they stand around under the shed, the storm will be short.

When the cattle lie down as soon as they are turned out to pasture in the morning, it is because they feel a rheumatic weariness in their bones, and you can look for rain soon.

When a night passes and no dew falls, it is a sign it is going to rain. This often loses much of its mystery when one remembers that dew has not fallen because the night was clouded.

When you see the sun drawing water at night, know that it will rain on the morrow. The sun is said to be drawing water when its rays can be seen shining through rifts in distant clouds.

PRACTICALLY SETTLED

Speakership Race Said to Be All Over Now.

Indianapolis, Dec. 26.—The prediction that the speakership race would open up all along the line right after Christmas bids fair to prove untrue. The developments of the last few days make it appear that the contest is already as good as settled in favor of Henry W. Marshall of Lafayette. The latter, leading politicians said today, has the place as good as clinched. None of the other candidates have withdrawn, but it is known that there are negotiations to get them out of the way. These negotiations, as far as one or two candidates are concerned, it is understood, are about closed. It is not believed there will be more than one candidate when the caucus meets. Politicians remarked today that they could not recall a time when the speakership has been settled with as little friction. The other candidates are making a show of opposition to Marshall, but it does not seem to count. If Marshall should be defeated the politicians would be greatly surprised now.

Governor Durbin has returned from Florida, where he was defendant in a case brought by the keeper of a saloon outside the camp of the 161st Indiana regiment, of which the governor was commanding officer in the Spanish-American war. The governor is all smiles, as he won without the proceedings going to the jury. The governor, as colonel, was largely responsible for breaking up the dives and saloons that bothered the soldiers. One keeper sued him for $10,000. The case may go to the circuit court of appeals, but it is not believed that the decision of the lower court will be reversed. The governor will now give his attention to the preparation of his message to the legislature.

The Indiana correspondent of the Mine Workers' Journal today said: "Work so far as reported this week is much the same as it has been for the last month or more. There is still complaint of scarcity of flats from some of the mines, but it appears that all are getting reasonably fair work." The scarcity of flats is not only worrying the miners, but the operators, manufacturers, dealers and railroads. The latter are making a strenuous effort to meet the situation.

A number of Indianapolis merchants who were interviewed today said the holiday trade was even heavier this year than last, which was considered a record breaker. The weather was adverse, but there was not a day for two weeks before Christmas that the streets were not a mass of humanity. The records at the postoffice show that more presents were sent out and received here than ever before.

The legislative visitation committee resumed its sitting here today. The members, Senator Goodwine of Williamsport, Henry W. Marshall of Lafayette, and Joseph Cravens of Madison, returned to Indianapolis this morning. They will be busy day and night until the legislature opens getting ready their report.

Miss Vandiver says she met the parents of Mr. Dawson several years ago. He had known him for six years. She had a daughter who died about two months ago at the age of twelve years. Miss Vandiver says she met Mr. Dawson at Indianapolis three years ago, when their acquaintance was renewed. Miss Vandiver went to New York to the bedside of Miss Dawson and was there when she died.

GOT HIM OUT OF TOWN

Reversing the Traditional Order of Domestic Fractions Mrs. Brentworth Did the Cutting.

Then Before Arrests Could Be Made She Patched the Wounds and Both Got Away.

Union City, Ind., Dec. 26.—A serious cutting affray took place in this city in which Mrs. R. Brentworth attacked her husband with a razor, inflicting several ugly cuts, one in the back parallel with the spinal column fourteen inches long. Brentworth is a sign painter, and the couple had been quarreling daily since coming here a week ago. After the fight the woman bound up her husband's wounds, and before any arrests could be made succeeded in getting him, although badly wounded and weak from loss of blood, to the train, which they boarded, going to Cincinnati, which they claimed was their home.

Junk Thieves Go to the Limit at Elwood.

Elwood, Ind., Dec. 26.—Junk thieves who have been operating in this city without interference for the last six months, perpetrated a daring theft when they stole a copper coil, valued at $250, from the boiler works of McKenzie & Diamond. There is not the slightest clue to the thieves, and a search to reveal the missing property. It is estimated that not less than $1,000 worth of brass fittings have been taken from machinery and machine shops in the past year by the thieves.

Fire Damages Church.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Dec. 26.—Fire broke out in the basement of the First Presbyterian church and did considerable damage. It caught from the furnace, and while the loss was confined to the basement, the entire building was badly damaged by smoke. The Christmas entertainment for last evening had to be postponed.

For a New Hospital.

Michigan City, Ind., Dec. 26.—The Sisters of the Order of St. Francis of Lafayette are having plans prepared for a hospital building in this city, which will cost $50,000. A block of land near the central part of the city has been bought for the institution, and construction of the hospital will begin in the spring.

Motorman Killed.

Decrease of Pauperism.

According to the report of the Secretary of the State Board of Charities pauperism in Indiana is on the decline. In 1898 seventy-five thousand persons in Indiana received aid from township trustees, and there were 3,102 persons in the county poor asylums. During the year ending December 31, 1901, only 50,000 people received help from township trustees, and the inmates in county poor asylums numbered on August 31, 1902, 3,046. This reduction is shown notwithstanding the large increase in the population of the state.

MODERN WOODMEN CONCLAVE.

A Very Successful Log-Rolling Here on Christmas Day.

Yesterday was a cold and disagreeable day, yet the Seymour Woodmen were not at all deterred. They planned for a big day and they had it, though many from neighboring camps who had intended to come were prevented by the very severe weather. Their absence was a disappointment to the local Woodmen who had made ample provision for all who came yet their program for the afternoon and evening was in no way changed. There was a large crowd anyway, probably 300 being present.

The parade started about three o'clock in the afternoon, soon after the special Woodmen train arrived from Columbus. Headed by the band they moved south on Chestnut street to Laurel, then west to Walnut, north on Walnut to Fifth, then east to Broadway, south to Second and west on Second to the opera house. Between two hundred and three hundred were in the line of march.

The meeting at the opera house began at the conclusion of the parade and continued with intermissions from time to time until 2:30 a. m. Between fifty and sixty new members were initiated and this furnished abundant amusement for one afternoon and evening.

A sumptuous banquet, served about ten o'clock, was a very enjoyable feature of the meeting. At this time were quite a number of the wives of the Woodmen and other members of their families present.

The meeting was in every way a success and did great credit to the Seymour Woodmen, who are loyal and enthusiastic Modern Woodmen. The local lodge here is the strongest one in this section of the state and grows rapidly.

Remembered the Poor.

When the Modern Woodmen found this morning that they had great quantities of eatables left over from their banquet last night they notified the proper parties in the several churches in the city and asked them to distribute it to the poor throughout the city. There was a quick response and before noon many a home was made brighter because of the charity and generosity of the Woodmen.

Convictions Decreasing.

Among the interesting facts set forth in State Statistician Johnson's report to the next legislature is a table showing the decrease of convictions of criminals in Indiana during the past fiscal year, compared to 1901. Read this table:

	1901	1902
Burglary.....	402	331
Embezzlement.....	125	78
Forgery.....	95	123
Grand and petit larceny.....	2913	2267
Murder.....	110	122
Manslaughter.....	18	8
Criminal assaults.....	86	96
Robbery.....	148	100
Perjury.....	36	20
Horse Stealing.....	47	37

For the year 1902 the ratio of arrests for these ten crimes for 1,000 inhabitants was 1.34 and for 1901 1.67. The ratio is made for the population, 89 counties reporting. During 1902 there were eighteen whitecapping cases—four in Dubois county and 14 in Pulaski county.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nice cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness [caused by catarrh] that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars free.
